

I hope the FCC will use whatever tools and authority it has at its disposal to discourage Sinclair Broadcasting's effort to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just prior the election. The ability and desire of large media entities to sway public opinion toward political figures whose policies enrich corporate bottom lines has gotten entirely out of hand, and threatens our democracy. Please exercise the authority given the FCC to preserve free communication.